Reviewed correspondence from Cheboygan County Office of Emergency Management.

Meeting Report (Please limit report to three (3) minutes)

MTA – Aloha sponsored the meeting. Jeff Lawson was the speaker and the attendance was very good.

Presque Isle Electric and Gas Annual meeting- Chuck Maziasz attended the meeting and stated that one of the topics of concern was a possibility of brown outs.

Road Projects-Future Road projects discussed and was decided that Angus Rd., Lakeland Rd., and Pioneer Road will be the next for improvements. Long Lake Rd. was also discussed regarding the break down on the edges.

Old Business

Hall rental agreement – Rental agreement reviewed and modified. Lease Agreement will be sent to Tim MacArthur, Attorney for review and be presented again at the December meeting for final approval.

New Business

Election Update – Teresa Sullivan, Clerk stated that there are 903 residents in the township and there were 588 voters at the November 8th election, a 65% turnout. Out of that total, there were 221 absentee voter ballots. Teresa Sullivan said that the hall lighting was not bright enough and suggested led lightbulbs or lamps. There was a suggestion to get clip on lights for the stations.

Barb Hall, prior clerk's email is still alohatwp@gmail.com. Teresa Sullivan stated that she continues to receive forwarded emails intended for her that are being sent to the prior clerk's email. This has been an ongoing problem because it appears this email is a township contact. Board decided that the email Barb continues to use needs to be relinquished so there is no more confusion how to contact the township. Motion by Steve Crusoe, seconded by Dana Stempky for a letter to be sent to Barb Hall to relinquish the email address alohatwp@gmail.com. Motion carried.
