April 2023 Report Emergency Management, PIE&G Liaison Board Meeting – Board reviewed. Chuck Maziasz and Steve Crusoe stated they will attend the May 30th PIE&G Liaison Meeting.

Meeting Reports

MTA- Meeting at Mullett Township was very well attended. Lt. Jeremy Runstrom presented the Cheboygan County Hazard Mitigation Plan Resolution for Townships to adopt.

Oak Hill Cemetery- Chuck Maziasz stated no issues at the cemetery. The Ordinance and Rules are still being reviewed for revisions. Steve Crusoe suggested that in the Ordinance it should state the cemetery has the right to trim the tree/shrubs on the gravesites. Artificial flowers are an ongoing problem.

MTA Annual Meeting in Traverse City – Steve Crusoe and Dana Stempky attended the event and found the information very useful. Teresa Sullivan attended virtually and was not able to view all sessions.

Old Business

Bathroom and ceiling fan lights – Chuck Maziasz stated the electrician never confirmed his service call. Currently the lights are not coming on by itself. Discussion that when the bathroom remodel gets under way, the fixtures will be looked at.

Blight complaint – Property on Devereaux Lake Rd. Chuck Maziasz asked for the name and address before he visits the property.

alohatwp@gmail.com – Prior Clerk, Barb Hall's email is still active. Chuck Maziasz to contact Barb Hall again to decommission the email.

Hall Ramp and Bathroom Project – Steve Crusoe completed the necessary application for the permit to begin the bidding process for the ramp and bathroom remodel. Discussion that the ramp needs to be done first, by November 15th. Teresa Sullivan to put the ad in the paper and have the invitation for bids and drawings available on our website. The bids will be opened at the June meeting. Possible septic system replacement was discussed. Chuck Maziasz to check with the Health Department was is needed.

New Business

Gravel pit – Chuck Maziasz sold gravel from the pit. Board thought that it was agreed that no gravel will be sold to contractors. Teresa Sullivan to review past minutes. Selling gravel from pit will be on next agenda.

Little Canada Rd. and White Cedar Rd. – Steve Crusoe stated that both roads need gravel. The culvert on Little Canada Rd. needs to be looked at.

Auditor Engagement Letter – Motion by Steve Crusoe, seconded by Dana Stempky to sign the Engagement Letter for Hanley & Miller PLC to prepare the F-65 and Qualifying Statement for the year ended March 31, 2023. Motion carried.
